

MINDFUL MONDAY NOVEMBER 4th

31 They replied, "Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved—you and your household." Acts 16:31

As we reflect on today's verse and sermon, we think about what being saved means to us. It changes us. It gives us a core memory that is with us forever. When we accept Jesus into our lives, we are freed and forgiven. We are no longer uncertain, no longer living in darkness, no longer alone. So today, let us rejoice that we have Jesus as our constant friend and presence in our lives. Let us pray that others may know God's love and accept Him into their hearts.

Today we pray for everyone that is on our prayer list. We lift to you the prayers spoken during worship. We pray for those unspoken prayers that you may know and offer an answer. Lord, we are grateful for your grace.

We ask that you join us in praying for this week's pastors, congregations, and ministries from the regional prayer calendar.

First Christian Church, Laurens, IA , Rita Cordell
United Protestant Church, Silver Bay, MN, Paul Scaringi
Jerry Crenshaw, Daniel Romero, Lisa Grace
Christian Church in Georgia